June 25th, 2007

We use Allied for all of our fire service needs at Giants Stadium. They do all of our hood cleanings, hood inspections and all of our fire extinguisher servicing. They are professional, timely and reliable. Scott Glende our sales rep is the best; he is courteous, reliable and prompt in responding to any and all service requests or inquiries. We have used other providers in the past for some aspects of our service but came to realize that Allied was the best and gave them all of our business.
